Students' Views

It's a matter of honour and great pleasure to introduce myself as a part of Nepal Tourism and Hotel Management College. I chose NTHMC because of its excellent teacher's team, sound management and well set-up infrastructures. Spending just a year in NTHMC, I learned many more things apart from the courses like social responsibilities, hospitality manners and so on. Besides from the college courses, college also provides us an opportunity to do OJT in Shangri-La Village Resort and other reputed hotels.

It's been fabulous to spend the two years of my life in NTHMC. I even don't know how those two years got passed away. I think it's because of all the qualified faculties, practical education and the friendly environment of the college. So I would like to thank NTHMC for being my side and lead me towards the bright future.

NTHMC is a very well known college in Nepal. It has many opportunity for a student to develop their carrier in various hospitality sector. The college also arrange various motivational programme, hotel exposer and other entertainment programme. When I entered this college for the first time, I was very new and shy. But after few weeks I found out that the faculties were so friendly and supportive towards the students.

Pursuing knowledge and clearing the skills is not a cup of cake to achieve, It take a lot of endurance and continual plethora effects with the proper caring environment. I perceive it here. Experience teacher and students caring administration, well equipped assets and sound environment have been the pushing factor to bring out the best in me.

NTHMC adopts a participatory method of teaching and learning vigorous participation from both the students and teachers. In two years; I have become a much more independent person and take control over my learning. Study at NTHMC has given me the right kind of start to the future in hospitality.

Nepal Tourism and Hotel Management College is one of the best and successful colleges in the country. With top class highly qualified faculty and management. The college also arranges various motivational classes, guest lectures, field visit, etc to boost the extra skills of the students for the effective future career. There are many opportunity for students to develop their physical as well as through external games. So, I find NTHMC the best leadership quality to outshine in every walk of life and also a place to develop and realize the ideals.
